Police 'raid' on Kerala House wrong: Report

The reports says the beef that was being served was carabeef (buffalo meat) and not cow meat

New Delhi

An official report submitted to Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal on Wednesday said Delhi Police had no authority to enter Kerala House over a complaint of alleged beef consumption.

In his report, Divisional Commissioner A. Anbarasu said "Delhi Police had no authority to enter, enquire and search the alleged presence and sale of cow meat in the (Kerala House) canteen." Some 20 policemen "raided" Kerala House on October 29 after the Hindu Sena alleged that beef (cow meat) was being served on its premises. It turned out that it was 'carabeef' (buffalo meat), not cow meat, reports IANS.

Delhi's AAP government on October 29 asked the divisional commissioner to submit a report on the police action within a week. The report will be sent to the home ministry and the Kerala government.

Delhi Police does not report to the Delhi government but to the home ministry. "Director, Animal Husbandry, GNCTD/Veterinary officer are competent to enter any premises and to search and seize the place where he has reasons to believe that an offence either has been committed or is likely to be committed," Anbarasu wrote in the report.He said the police team did not follow the provisions of the Delhi Agricultural Cattle Preservation (DACP) Act, 1994, by not informing the competent authority and ensuring their presence at the time of the visit.

"The entry of Delhi Police cannot be construed as a visit for enforcement of law and order," the report said.

"They visited (it) for the sole purpose of investigation of a complaint related to serving beef in the canteen of Kerala House."

The report said that during the first visit by police officials, it became clear that no beef was served in the canteen. Therefore, the later visit by more policemen was "absolutely unethical". "In case the police officials were not satisfied with the inquiry made at the first visit, some veterinary officer should have been informed so that the complaint could have been investigated properly," the report stated. The seven-page report recommended "sensitisation" of Delhi Police personnel and veterinary officers vis-a-vis proper protocols.

"There is a need to create awareness about the provisions of the DACP Act among citizens of Delhi in general and Delhi police personnel in particular," the report said.

The police "raid" sparked strong protests by the Kerala government. Kerala Minister Kadakampally Surendran stopped selling 'carabeef' but resumed sales a day later.

Akalis question Rahul's visit to Punjab

Chandigarh

A day before Congress vice president Rahul Gandhi is to visit Punjab where he intends to meet families of two men allegedly killed in police firing on protesters agitating against sacrilege of the Guru Granth Sahib, the ruling Shiromani Akali Dal on Wednesday questioned the visit, linking it to the 1984 anti-Sikh riots.

"Rahul should tell the people why he had never tried to console or share the grief of even one of the thousands of Sikh families whose near and dear ones had been butchered in 1984," Delhi Sikh Gurdwara Management Committee (DSGMC) president Manjit Singh G.K. said in a statement, reports IANS.

"Rahul should tell the people why he had never visited the widow colony of Tilak Vihar in Delhi. He only needs to take out half an hour to go there.

"Was it because you felt guilty as you knew that the riots had been instigated by your own family members and meticulously planned and executed by senior members of your own party?" the DSGMC president said, terming as "mischievous" Gandhi's visit to meet families of two people killed in police firing in Behbal Kalan village last month.

Gandhi is expected to visit the families of the victims in Faridkot district on Thursday.

The Akali leader said the Congress leadership was responsible for the genocide of Sikhs in the aftermath of the assassination of then Prime Minister Indira Gandhi in 1984.

Modi has lost Bihar even before fifth phase: Kejriwal

New Delhi

Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal on Wednesday said Narendra Modi has lost Bihar even before fifth phase of the assembly elections.

"Modi Ji has lost Bihar even before the fifth phase. Public mandate is clear," he tweeted, adding, "Let Nitish rule Bihar. Modi rule the country. Don't divide the country." In another tweet in Hindi, Kejriwal requested the central government "not to interfere in the states".

"Stop interfering in the state affairs and maintain federal system," he said, reports IANS. For the welfare of the country, he said, "Secularism, equality and Integrity of India should be maintained."

The last phase of the Bihar polls will be held on November 5. The results will be out on November 8.

Court to hear arguments on court-monitored probe plea

New Delhi

The Delhi High Court on Wednesday said it would hear arguments on December 3 on the maintainability of plea for a court-monitored probe into charges against the Himachal Pradesh Chief Minister Virbhadra Singh.

A division bench of Justice B.D. Ahmed and Justice Sanjeev Sachdeva said senior advocate Hariharan who was appointed amicus curiae in the case will start arguments in maintainability of the plea. "On the submissions led by advocate Kapil Sibal (appearing for Singh) we are reopening the issue of maintainability. Advocate Hariharan shall argue on the issue of maintainability on December 3," said the court, reports IANS.

The court's order came after Sibal argued that a court-monitored probe into charges against the chief minister was not maintainable.

CHARGES AGAINST HIMACHAL CM

The court earlier held that the plea was maintainable, saying when the court itself ha d taken up the issue on its own, there was no question of maintainability.

However, Sibal said an FIR has already been registered against Singh and investigation has been going on, matter is related to Himachal Pradesh, so the plea was not maintainable and there was no need of court-monitored probe.

Hariharan told the bench that CBI had filed a plea in the Supreme Court seeking the transfer of disproportionate assets case outside Himachal Pradesh.

The CBI and the Income Tax department had earlier filed status rep ort on the allegations against Singh in a disproportionate assets case. There are charges against Singh on amassing assets disproportionate to his known sources of income.

Earlier, a public interest litigation on the issue was filed by a non-governmental organisation, Common Cause, but Singh challenged its maintainability.

The court later discharged the NGO and Prashant Bhushan, appearing for the NGO, from the matter and appointed advocate Hariharan as amicus curiae to assist the court on the issue.

Can't compare RSS with ISIS, says Sangh functionary

HYDERABAD: Stating that India would reject any extremist ideology, a senior RSS functionary on Wednesday said it was not fair to compare Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh with terror outfit Islamic State. "If you say the mindset of Islamic State and RSS is the same, we would not have existed in this democratic country. India as a nation would have rejected an ideology which is extremist.

"Extremist ideology never survived in India. Naxalism did not survive in India. It cannot be a mainstream ideology," RSS' Telangana State Secretary Chandrasekhar told reporters here. RSS worked on the basis of Indian ethos like 'Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam' (the entire world is one family) and unity in diversity, he said. "It is not fair to compare with an organisation (IS) which is killing thousands," he said.

MLA Rashid detained

SRINAGAR: Controversial Independent MLA Sheikh Abdul Rashid was on Wednesday detained in Kupwara district while he was on his way back to Srinagar after campaigning for boycott of a rally to be addressed by Prime Minister Narendra Modi here on Saturday, his Awami Ittehad Party (AIP) said. "Rashid was detained by a police party at Watergam while he was on way to Srinagar from the frontier district," AIP spokesman Inam Un Nabi said.He said the legislator held a series of public meetings in Kupwara, advising people not to attend the Prime Minister's public rally in Srinagar on November 7 as a protest against the "high handedness" of the state.The spokesman said Rashid was scheduled to visit Anantnag district of south Kashmir tomorrow in connection with his campaign. He said the AIP will welcome the Prime Minister by hoisting black flags during his visit to the state.

Girl waves liquor bottle at Stalin, seeks prohibition

Girl, who lost her father to alcoholism, seeks total ban on liquor if DMK comes to power in assembly polls to be held next year

Vellore (TN)

A teary-eyed teenage girl on Wednesday waved a liquor bottle during a "Namakku Naame" campaign of DMK second in command M K Stalin here, seeking an assurance that prohibition would be implemented if his party came to power next year.

The emotionally charged up girl student told Stalin that she lost her father to the "evil of alcohol consumption".

"Vellore is infamous for its liquor outlets, liquor consumption is an evil, I lost my father due to it," she said.

She wanted implementation of prohibition if DMK came to power in the Assembly elections scheduled to be held next April-May.

In response, Stalin said, "Don't worry, for sure total prohibition will be implemented if DMK is voted to power. Steps will be taken for it. Our party chief Kalaignar (M Karunanidhi) has decided to change this culture of liquor consumption. Don't worry."

DMK had few months back declared that it would bring in prohibition if voted to power.

Promising positive changes including prohibition, Stalin said the elected representatives would be made to visit general public periodically to address their grievances.

"You need not wait for long. When DMK comes to power, we will ensure that elected representatives, be it MLAs, MPs, municipal councillors or Ministers, will visit you to listen to your grievances and solve them," he said. He also said his party would give preference to youth and urged them to involve themselves in public life for the growth of the nation. The DMK leader is in the third leg of his "Namakku Naame" pre-poll tour across Tamil Nadu to mobilise support for his party. He will end his campaign, that began on September 20 in Kanyakumari District, on November 7 in Tiruvallur District.

Woman who alleged sexual harassment in TERI quits

New Delhi

A woman researcher who hurled charges of sexual harassment against environmental scientist R.K. Pachauri has quit her job at TERI, alleging she had been treated badly. TERI denied the charge.

The 29-year-old woman accused The Energy Research Institute (TERI) of treating her "in the worst possible manner" and "failing to uphold" her interests.

"Your organisation has treated me in the worst possible manner. TERI failed to uphold my interests as an employee, let alone protecting them," she said in her resignation letter. TERI said the allegations were "completely false and baseless" and said it had given her "special privileges" and "acceded to all her demands". The think tank said: "TERI has been completely fair and totally neutral in the matter. The organisation has till date accorded special privileges to the complainant and acceded to all her demands. The organization has not favoured anyone which is a fact apparent from documented records."

In February this year, the woman complained to police that Pachauri, 75, began harassing her soon after she joined TERI. She alleged that the organisation protected Pachauri and provided him "full immunity, despite being held guilty of sexual harassment" by its inquiry committee, reports IANS.

She said her work profile was changed with "zero explanation" and the organisation "played deaf" to her requests not to do so.TERI said the complainant had requested to allow her to work from home, which was declined as the institute's policy and sexual harassment law do not provide such privilege.

She was, however, given the option to join a TERI centre near her home in Gurgaon to ensure she worked on subjects consistent with her qualification and experience, TERI said.

In her letter, the woman said, "I refuse to be associated with an organization, such as yours, for the way you have mistreated me, for not standing by the law, for not having respect for my capabilities, for doing nothing to ensure that my career is not harmed and instead harmed me mentally, professionally and economically."

TERI said she was allowed 90 days special leave with full pay and benefits till May 18, which was extended till May 26, and beyond which she "preferred to stay on leave without pay". It said that during this period, the organisation was not intimated when she would resume work. "Since we did not receive any prior intimidation, leave without pay started with immediate effect from May 26 until date of resigning," TERI said. It said it had initiated the account settlement process after her resignation.Pachauri was ousted from his post as head of TERI in July and Ajay Mathur was appointed the director general.

Pachauri also stepped down from the UN Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change and the Prime Minister's Council on Climate Change.
